THIS CAUSE is before the Court on 38 Defendant's Motion for Extension of Pretrial Deadlines, filed on October 15, 2015. 03/07/2016	63	ENDORSED ORDER DENYING 54 Defendant's Motion for Reconsideration. On February 24, 2016, the Defendant filed its Motion asking the Court to reconsider its previous Order (D.E. 50) sealing the confidential settlement agreement between the Plaintiff and a third party. Defendant argues that the Court's earlier Order violates the public's common-law right of access.

"The common-law right of access includes the right to inspect and copy public records and documents." Chicago Tribune Co. v. Bridgestone/Firestone, Inc., 263 F.3d 1304, 1311 (11th Cir. 2001)(citing Nixon v. Warner Comm., Inc., 435 U.S. 589, 597(1978)). "The right to inspect and copy is not absolute, however, and a judge's exercise of discretion in deciding whether to release judicial records should be informed by a 'sensitive appreciation of the circumstances that led to... [the] production [of the particular document in question].'" Id. (citing Nixon at 598) (internal citations omitted). Not unlike the Rule 26 standard, the common-law right of access requires a balancing of competing interests. "The right of access does not apply to discovery and, where it does apply, may be overcome by a showing of good cause." Romero v. Drummond Co., 480 F.3d 1234, 1245 (11th Cir. 2007). "[M]aterial filed in connection with pretrial motions that require judicial resolution of the merits is subject to the common-law right...." Id.

In this case, the disputed document is subject to the common law right. In determining whether good cause exists to overcome the common law right to access, courts "balance the asserted right of access against the other party's interest in keeping the information confidential." Chicago Tribune, 263 F.3d at 1309. "[W]hether good cause exists... is... decided by the nature and character of the information in question." Id. at 1315. In balancing the public's right against the asserted individual interest, courts weigh several factors including: (1) whether allowing access would impair court functions or harm legitimate privacy interests; (2) the degree of and likelihood of injury if made public; (3) the reliability of the information; (4) whether there will be an opportunity to respond to the information; (5) whether the information concerns public officials or public concerns; and (6) the availability of a less onerous alternative to sealing the documents. See In re Alexander Grant & Co. Litig., 820 F.2d 352, 356 (11th Cir. 1987).

Here, Defendant argues that the confidential settlement agreement between Plaintiff and a third-party should be made available to the public. The Court disagrees. The agreement in this case was negotiated between the parties with the expectation that it would remain private and confidential. If a non-party to a confidential agreement could force that agreement to be made public simply by suing one of the parties, then confidentiality provisions would have little value in American law. Additionally, if the Court required Plaintiff to make its agreement public, then it would simultaneously force the Plaintiff to breach the very terms of that agreement. Having considered and weighed all of the factors, the Court concludes that the confidential settlement agreement in dispute should remain sealed. See, e.g., Local Access, LLC v. Peerless Network, Inc., No. 6:14-CV-399-ORL-40, 2015 WL 5307729, at *2 (M.D. Fla. Sept. 10, 2015) ("A party's interest in the privacy of... the terms of confidential agreements oftentimes outweighs the public's right of access."); Graphic Packaging Int'l, Inc. v. C.W. Zumbiel Co., No. 3:10-CV-891-JJB, 2010 WL 6790538, at *2 (M.D. Fla. Oct. 28, 2010) (same).

Furthermore, Defendant will suffer no prejudice by the seal, because the Court will require Plaintiff to provide an un-redacted copy of the settlement agreement to the Defendant pursuant to the strictest terms of confidentiality. This will permit Defendant to rigorously defend its case while protecting the Plaintiff's right to contract.

Finally, the Court expresses concern that this matter required court-intervention in the first place.

03/22/2018	88 ORDER GRANTING IN PART AND DENYING IN PART 79 Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant Liberty Mutual's Motion for Reconsideration of this Court's Omnibus Order Granting in Part and Denying in Part Motions for Summary Judgment. Liberty Mutual does not identify the legal authority for its Motion for Reconsideration. However, because the Motion was filed within twenty-eight days of the Court's Omnibus Order on the Parties' Cross Motions for Summary Judgment ("Omnibus Order"), it is properly construed as a Motion under Rule 59(e). See, e.g., Beach Terrace Condo. Ass'n v. Goldring Invs., No. 8:15-cv-1117-T-33TBM, 2015 WL 4548721, at *1 (M.D. Fla. July 28, 2015). "The only grounds for granting [a Rule 59] motion are newly-discovered evidence or manifest errors of law or fact." Arthur v. King, 500 F.3d 1335, 1343 (11th Cir. 2007) (quoting In re Kellogg, 197 F.3d 1116, 1119 (11th Cir. 1999)). "[A] Rule 59(e) motion [cannot be used] to relitigate old matters, raise argument or present evidence that could have been raised prior to the entry of judgment." Id. (quoting Michael Linet, Inc. v. Vill. of Wellington, Fla., 408 F.3d 757, 763 (11th Cir. 2005)). Whether to grant a Rule 59(e) motion to alter or amend a summary judgment order is a matter left to the district court's discretion. See Solutia, Inc. v. McWane, Inc., 672 F.3d 1230, 1238-39 (11th Cir. 2012); see also Lussier v. Dugger, 904 F.2d 661, 667 (11th Cir. 1990) ("Motions for relief from judgment are subject to the trial court's discretion.") (citation omitted). Here, the Parties agree that the Court's Omnibus Order incorrectly found that the Certificate of Insurance issued to Liberty Mutual did not reference the Contractor's Policy. However, the Parties disagree as to whether that factual error warrants reconsideration of the Court's legal conclusions. The Court accepts the Parties' stipulation that the Omnibus Order contains a factual error regarding the Certificate of Insurance. Therefore, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Motion for Reconsideration is GRANTED IN PART and the Omnibus Order is hereby AMENDED to reflect that the Certificate of Insurance references the Contractor's Policy. However, the Court finds that Liberty Mutual is not entitled to reconsideration of the Court's legal conclusions. The fact that both Parties present plausible arguments on the issue demonstrates that the Court did not make a "manifest error of law" necessitating reconsideration. A "manifest error" is "[a]n error that is plain and indisputable, and that amounts to a complete disregard of the controlling law or the credible evidence in the record." Error, Black's Law Dictionary (10th ed. 1014); see also Daughtry v. Army Fleet Support, LLC, Civil Action No. 1:11cv153MHT, 2014 WL 466100, at *2 (M.D. Ala. Feb. 5, 2014). Here, it is a least disputable whether the Court's ruling was erroneous. Consequently, Liberty Mutual has not demonstrated that it is entitled to further reconsideration under Rule 59(e). Accordingly, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that Liberty Mutual's Motion for Reconsideration is GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART consistent with this Order. It is FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Parties' Joint Motion for Case Management Conference is DENIED AS MOOT. This entry constitutes the ENDORSED ORDER in its entirety. Signed by Judge Joan A. 05/30/2019	115	MANDATE of USCA (certified copy). AFFIRMED in part, VACATED in part, and REMANDED. In sum, we affirm that part of the district court's summary-judgment order holding that State Farm had a duty to defend Liberty Mutual against vicarious liability claims starting on October 18, 2012. But as to the question of whether either the contractors policy or the umbrella policy imposed a broader duty to defend against claims seeking to hold Liberty Mutual liable for Liberty Mutual's own acts, the district court's summary-judgment order and subsequent order on a motion for reconsideration left several questions of fact and law unresolved. We therefore vacate that part of the summary-judgment order and remand for further proceedings consistent with this opinion re 99 Notice of Appeal, filed by State Farm Florida Insurance Company, 90 Notice of Appeal, filed by Liberty Mutual Fire Insurance Company; Date Issued: 5/30/2019; USCA Case Number: 18-11652-AA.
